The terms "we", "us", and "our" refer to Deriv.
- 1.2. We are licensed and regulated by the Securities and Commodities Authority of the UAE ("SCA") for the following services (together, the "Services"):
 - 1.2.1. Category 1 Licence (Licence no.: 20200000243) as a Trading broker of over-the-counter derivatives and currencies in the spot market, and Financial Products dealer; and
 - 1.2.2. Category 5 Licence (Licence no.: 20200000199) to provide financial consultation services ("Financial Consultation Services").
- 1.3. These General Terms of Use, together with the Funds and Transfers Terms, the Trading Terms, the Risk Disclosure, and the Financial Consultation Services Terms, each of which is available here, form the agreement between you and Deriv (each as amended from time to time, collectively known as the "Agreement"). You expressly agree to the terms of the Agreement, and we agree to your access to and use of our Services.
- 1.4. This Agreement shall take effect on the date that you electronically accept the terms of this Agreement. Before we can supply you with the full range of our Services, you may need to complete additional steps and/or provide us with certain written and/or electronic consents. We shall not be liable for any losses suffered as a result of the delays caused by this process.
- 1.5. If we wish to make any changes to this Agreement, we will endeavour to notify you electronically or on <https://deriv.ae/> (the "Website") at least seven (7) days in advance. If you reject a variation in the Agreement, you must discontinue your use of our Services and notify us in writing prior to the date the amendment notice states the updated terms will come into effect, and we will terminate this Agreement in accordance with Clause 14. If you do not take this action,
- 1.6. you will be deemed to have accepted the updated terms of the Agreement. We reserve the right to amend this Agreement without prior notice if we are requested to make an amendment by the SCA; however, in this case, we will notify you within thirty (30) days of making this amendment. You acknowledge and agree that if we may ask you for your express consent in certain circumstances, then this does not mean that your express consent will be required or requested for any other amendments in the future.
- 1.7. Terms used in this Agreement, such as "including" or "for example", are not words of limitation and shall be interpreted as followed by the words "without limitation". The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.
- 1.8. This Agreement is available in both English and Arabic. In the event of any discrepancies or differences in interpretation, the Arabic version shall prevail.

2. Product offering

- 2.1. We provide our Services via Deriv-branded trading platforms available on the Website (the “Trading Platforms”) where you can trade contracts for difference (“CFDs”).
- 2.2. Our Services are offered on a non-face-to-face basis. We will communicate with you through our Website, emails, and other electronic correspondence and send you your account statement and any required reports electronically.
- 2.3. Our Services are offered on an execution-only basis. This means that you will be responsible for making your own investment decisions and actions when executing your transaction orders through the Website. We will execute any specific instructions from you, and we will not be required to ensure that the individual transactions are suitable or appropriate for you.
- 2.4. Our products are complex instruments and may not be suitable for everyone, as per our Risk Disclosure. You agree to provide us with up-to-date, accurate, correct and complete information when we request it, so that we may assess the suitability and appropriateness of our products and Services for you. We will have no liability to you if this information is incomplete or misleading, or if it changes or becomes erroneous unless you notify us of such changes. You agree that any investment decisions and transactions you make will be based solely on your own evaluation of your financial circumstances and investment objectives and whether such decisions and transactions are suitable with respect to your investment and/ or trading strategy.
- 2.5. CFD trading does not give you any right to the underlying instrument of your trade, which means that you will not have any interest in, or the right to purchase, any underlying shares in relation to these underlying instruments since CFDs represent a notional value only.
- 2.6. We reserve the exclusive right to determine the scope, availability, and nature of the services and products we offer you.
- 2.7. 4.2. Tax

4.2.1. We may collect basic information regarding your tax status for the purposes of meeting our obligations under legislation relating to the Common Reporting Standard ("CRS"), the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), and any other applicable tax reporting legislation. This means we will require you to provide us with personally identifiable information, including your tax identification number, the countries where you are a tax resident, confirmation of whether you are a US citizen or whether or not your place of birth is in the US, and/or any other information which will be required under the applicable laws.

4.2.2. The tax information that you may provide will only be disclosed to the authorities who are legally obligated to collect this information for tax reporting. We shall disclose your tax information to them only to the extent that we are legally obligated to. We do not use, disclose, or process this information in any other way at any time.

4.2.3. You shall inform us without any undue delay of any change to your residency, citizenship status, names, address, or any other changes surrounding your profile during the term of this Agreement.

4.2.4. You are entirely responsible for your tax affairs, including any applicable returns and complying with any applicable laws and regulations. 4.3. Fraud

4.3.1. We reserve the right to block or withhold the funds in your account, rescind any profits, suspend your account, terminate this Agreement without notice, and/or cancel any request for a deposit, withdrawal, or refund of your funds if we know or have reason to believe that any fraud has taken or will take place, including if one or more of the following cases is true:

4.3.5. Your telephone conversations and/or electronic communications related to your use of the Services may be recorded. These recordings may be used for anti-fraud purposes in accordance with our Security and Privacy Policy.

5. Client classification

- 5.1. To comply with SCA Regulations, we are required to classify you as an “Ordinary Investor”, “Professional Investor”, or “Counterparty”. This is necessary because we are obliged to perform the Services in accordance with specific conditions and/or according to methods that differ for each category of client.
- 5.2. You acknowledge that, in accordance with the SCA Regulations, varying levels of protection are provided to different categories of clients based on their experience, expertise, and regulatory status. Consequently, an Ordinary Investor is entitled to a higher degree of protection compared to a Professional Investor, while a Counterparty is afforded limited or no protection.
- 5.3. We may request certain information from you as part of our client classification process. We may require periodic declarations from you that your classification data has not changed. You are required to update us if there is a change in such data for any reason at any time.
- 5.4. We will categorise and treat you as either a Professional Investor or a Counterparty only if you are eligible to be categorised as such. You may only be classified into one category. If you are not eligible to be categorised as a Professional Investor or Counterparty, we will categorise you as an Ordinary Investor. If we have classified you as a Professional Client or Counterparty, you may request us to classify you as an Ordinary Investor as an exception.
- 5.5. If you have been classified as a Professional Investor, you must notify us as soon as reasonably practicable if you fail to meet the conditions of a Professional Investor set out in the SCA Rulebook.
- 5.6. Subject to the SCA Regulations, we reserve the right to review any reclassification request by you and at our sole discretion to reclassify you.

6. Compliance with laws

- 6.1. As you access our Website, Trading Platforms and Services, it is your responsibility to make sure that you understand the relevant laws and regulations of the UAE and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. In continuing to access our Website and Services, you represent to us that you are doing so legally.

7. Our rights

- 7.1. We reserve the right to suspend, refuse, or cancel any of our Services, refuse or reverse any of your trades, ask you for a refund, and charge you deposit and/or withdrawal fees for any reason, including the following:
 - 7.1.1. If we believe that your activity on our Website or Services may be illegal in the UAE or that it may breach any laws, regulations, instruments, ordinances, or rules, including those that govern any exchange, financial market, or financial regulatory environment;
 - 7.1.2. If we reasonably believe you have made or are making any false or misleading representation to us; or
 - 7.1.3. Any instance where legal authorities, law enforcement agencies or regulators contact us to request we cease offering our Services to you.

- 7.2. In the event of any error on our Website or Trading Platforms (including any payment-related errors from our payment services providers), we reserve the right to take any action necessary to rectify the error, including correcting any inaccuracies, temporary or permanent suspension of access to the relevant products, modification, replacement or refund of funds, or refusing or reversing a trade.
- 7.3. If you become aware of any error within a report or statement we provide to you, such as any amounts erroneously credited to your account, you shall immediately inform us, and you are responsible for returning these amounts to us. If we become aware of such an occurrence, you hereby authorise us to correct the error by amending the report or statement and, if applicable, treating this as a deficit balance. If you have used any funds that were credited to you erroneously, we may, without notice, close all or any of your open positions at such closing prices as we reasonably believe to be appropriate to recover such funds.
- 7.4. If your account for a Trading Platform is disabled for any reason (for example, your Deriv MT5 account), we reserve the right to close any pending positions at the then-current market price.
- 7.5. We shall be entitled to take any action that we consider necessary, at our sole discretion, to ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, or regulations. These actions shall be binding on you and shall not render us liable.
- 7.6. If we determine that you have engaged in inappropriate behaviour, including the usage of offensive language, we reserve the right to restrict or suspend your account or terminate this Agreement without notice.
- 7.7. We have the right to ask you for information to verify that you are complying with this Agreement at any time. If you do not comply with our reasonable request for information, we may restrict or suspend your account or terminate this Agreement without notice.
- 7.8. We may keep records, which include your personal data, trading information, and communications, due to our legal and regulatory obligations. Our records will serve as documentation of your use of the Services unless they are demonstrated to be incorrect. Upon your request, your records may be provided to you, although we are not responsible for any record-keeping obligations you may have. You acknowledge and agree that we may use our records as evidence in any legal or regulatory proceedings.

8. Market abuse and prohibited behaviour

- 8.1. You agree that you will not enter into any transactions which fall within the definition of market abuse under applicable laws.
- 8.2. You shall not:
 - 8.2.1. Trade if you are in possession of insider information or have insider knowledge relating to any financial market, issuer, or instrument;
 - 8.2.2. Trade if you are attempting or have attempted to manipulate the market for any financial instrument;
 - 8.2.3. Trade in a way that violates any laws, regulations, instruments, or ordinances, including those that govern the operation of any exchange, financial market, or financial regulatory environment;
 - 8.2.4. Act in an abusive or dishonest manner in respect of our Website, Trading Platforms, or other products;
 - 8.2.5. Enter into trades which manipulate our products; or
 - 8.2.6. Enter into trades aimed at exploiting errors in prices.

If we determine or suspect that you have breached Clause 8.2, we may prohibit you from trading, reverse any affected trades, close any open positions, block withdrawals, refund the money you have deposited, retain any funds you may have accumulated, or take any other measures we deem reasonably necessary.

9. Negative balance protection

- 9.1. We may offer negative balance protection to protect you against adverse movements in your trades, which would result in you owing money to Deriv because prices have moved against you since you first opened them. Negative balance protection considers your aggregate liability on all open trades and not per trade when compared to the amount available in your Deriv account.
- 9.2. The provisions of negative balance protection do not apply in the following situations:
 - 9.2.1. When you open a trade that is considered prohibited; or
 - 9.2.2. When a negative balance results from your breach of this Agreement.

10. Inactive and Dormant and accounts

- 10.1. If your account has not recorded any transactions or updates in personal details for a period of three (3) years or more (i.e. greater than thirty-six (36) months), we will send you a notice by email to require you to perform a transaction or update your personal details within thirty (30) days of the notice.
- 10.2. If you do not respond or perform any action within this deadline, you acknowledge that we will classify your account as dormant.
- 10.3. If your account has not recorded any transactions for a period greater than twelve (12) months, your account becomes inactive. For inactive accounts, we reserve the right to charge you a fee of up to USD twenty-five (25), or the equivalent in AED as calculated in accordance with the current exchange rate published by XE or any other recognised data provider as at the date the dormant fee is charged. We reserve the right to charge you this fee for every period of six (6) months that your account remains inactive.
- 10.4. If your account is closed or blocked, you must contact our Help Centre to recover funds from your account. If your account is dormant, you can still make withdrawals.
- 10.5. Dormant Deriv MT5 accounts
 - 10.5.1. We have the right to delete your Deriv MT5 demo account after thirty (30) days of inactivity.
 - 10.5.2. We have the right to archive your Deriv MT5 real account after thirty (30) days of inactivity. Any funds in your archived Deriv MT5 account will be transferred to your deriv.ae account.

11. Third-party relationships

- 11.1. You may be introduced to us by one of our affiliates. You acknowledge that we do not authorise our affiliates to make any contract, agreement, or warranty on our behalf. In particular, affiliates do not have the authority to collect any money from you, to offer any guarantees against losses, to offer investment services, or to offer any advice in our name.

12. Warranties and indemnities

- 12.1. You warrant and represent to be fully and personally responsible for settling every transaction into which you enter through your account with us.
- 12.2. You warrant and represent to us that you alone control access to your account and that no minors or any other third parties are granted access to your account.
- 12.3. You remain fully liable for any and all positions traded on your account and for any credit card or other transactions entered into through the Website for your account. You agree to indemnify us against any and all costs and losses of any kind whatsoever that we may incur as a direct or indirect result of your failure to perform or settle any such transaction entered into through the Website or Trading Platforms.
- 12.4. You are responsible for compensating us for any costs and losses that we might incur or bear as a result of your failure to comply with any of your obligations set out in this Agreement. This includes indemnifying us against any costs that arise through the enforcement of any of our rights under this Agreement.
- 12.5. We specifically and expressly disclaim any and all warranties or representations, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, including any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement, relating to the Services, Website, and Trading Platforms.
- 12.6. We provide our Services, Website, and Trading Platforms on an “as is” and “as available” basis and give no warranty that they will be free of errors, that any errors will be corrected, or that they are free of any third-party interferences such as hackers or any other harmful components that arise outside of our control.
- 12.7. We make no claims that our Services, Website, and Trading Platforms will be available on an uninterrupted basis or that an error-free service will be provided. Subject to Clause 13.1, we will not be liable for the consequences of any such errors or interruptions.

13. Liability

- 13.1. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or exclude our liability for anything which cannot be limited or excluded by applicable law.
- 13.2. Subject to Clause 13.1, we shall not be liable to you for (a) any loss of business, revenue, profits, or anticipated savings; (b) any wasted expenditure, corruption, or destruction of data; (c) any loss of goodwill or reputation; (d) any indirect or consequential loss; or (e) the acts or omissions of any third party, in each case arising directly or indirectly in connection with this Agreement.
- 13.3. Subject to Clauses 13.1 and 13.2, we may be liable for your losses only to the extent that these losses are due to our gross negligence, wilful default, and/or fraud, and our aggregate liability to you in respect of all claims arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including as a result of breach of contract, tort, negligence, under statute, or otherwise) will be limited to the aggregate amount of the deposits less withdrawals on your Deriv account on the date that the cause of action accrued.
- 13.4. Subject to Clause 13.1, in the event that we provide information, news, market commentary or research on our Website or in any communications, including newsletters, whilst we take reasonable measures to ensure the accuracy of this information, we shall not be liable for any losses (whether direct or indirect) suffered by you arising from any inaccuracy or mistake in the information given or as a result of you taking or not taking any action based on this information. If you want to use this information to help you with your own investment decisions, you do this at your own risk.

14. Termination

- 14.1. You may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving us notice (in accordance with Clause 17). After you give us notice, you should close out any open trades as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, within twenty-one (21) days, after which we reserve the right to close your trades on your behalf (at the then-current market price) before permanently closing your Deriv account.
- 14.2. We may terminate this Agreement and close your Deriv account at any time by giving you twenty-one (21) days' notice (in accordance with Clause 17).
