You expressly agree to the terms of the Agreement, and we agree to your access to and use of our Services (as further described in Clause 2 below). In the event of any conflict between these General Terms of Use and the Trading Terms, the Funds and Transfers Terms, the Risk Disclosure, and the applicable Additional Terms, the following order of precedence will apply: (i) the Additional Terms; (ii) these General Terms of Use; (iii) the Trading Terms; (iv) the Funds and Transfers Terms; and (v) the Risk Disclosure.
- 1.4. You are responsible for checking our website periodically to review the current version of the Agreement. If any of your KYC documentation expires, we have the right to request additional non-expired KYC documentation and you agree to provide this to us. We reserve the right to restrict payments and/or decline our Services to you if the requested information and/or documentation is not provided in a timely manner.
 - 4.1.5. Only you, as the account holder, can deposit or withdraw funds to or from the account. You agree to provide us with evidence that an account or payment method belongs to you if we request this. All funds that you deposit into your account must be your own. - 4.2. Tax
 - 4.2.1. 4.3.4. You must provide us with up-to-date, accurate, and complete information and documentation. If these appear to be outdated, inaccurate, or incomplete, we reserve the right to reject them or ask you to correct or verify any details you have provided.

5. Compliance with laws

5.1. It is your responsibility as you access our Website and Services to make sure that you understand the relevant laws and regulations of your country and you must comply with all applicable laws and regulations. In some countries, we may not be permitted to offer our Services to you unless you have taken proactive steps to solicit information about them and requested to be provided with our products and services. Access to the Services and the offering of certain trades via our Services may also be restricted in some jurisdictions. It is your responsibility to know about the restrictions that apply in your country of residence and observe them. In continuing to access our Website and Services, you represent to us that you are doing so legally and that, where relevant, you have solicited information about our products and services and requested to be provided with them.

6. Our rights

- 6.1. We reserve the right, acting reasonably, to suspend, refuse, or cancel any of our Services, refuse or reverse any of your trades, ask you for a refund, and/or make an adjustment against your account in our favour in connection with deposits to or withdrawals from your account for any reason, including the following:
 - 6.1.1. If we believe that your activity on our Website or Services may be illegal in your country or state or that it may breach any laws, regulations, instruments, ordinances, or rules, including those that govern any exchange, financial market, or financial regulatory environment;
 - 6.1.2. If we reasonably believe you have made or are making any false or misleading representation to us; or
 - 6.1.3. Any instance where legal authorities, law enforcement agencies or regulators contact us to request that we cease offering our Services to you.
- 6.2. In the event of any error on our Website or Trading Platforms (including any payment-related errors from our payment services providers), we reserve the right to take any action necessary to rectify the error, including correcting any inaccuracies, temporary or permanent suspension of access to the relevant products, modification, replacement or refund of funds, or refusing or reversing a trade.
- 6.3. If you become aware of any error within a report or statement we provide to you, such as any amounts erroneously credited to your account, you shall immediately inform us, and you are responsible for returning these amounts to us. If we become aware of such an occurrence, you hereby authorise us to correct the error by amending the report or statement and, if applicable, treating this as a deficit balance. If you have used any funds that were credited to you erroneously, we may, without notice, close all or any of your open positions at such closing prices as we reasonably believe to be appropriate to recover such funds.
- 6.4. If your account for a Trading Platform is disabled for any reason (for example, your Deriv MT5 account), we reserve the right to close any pending positions at the then-current market price.
- 6.5. We shall be entitled to take any action that we consider necessary, at our sole discretion, to ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, or regulations. These actions shall be binding on you and shall not render us liable.
- 6.6. If we determine that you have engaged in inappropriate behaviour, including the usage of offensive language, we reserve the right to restrict or suspend your account or terminate this Agreement without notice.
- 6.7. We have the right to ask you for information to verify that you are complying with this Agreement at any time. If you do not comply with our reasonable request for information, we may restrict or suspend your account, or terminate this Agreement without notice.
- 6.8. We may keep records, which include your personal data, trading information, and communications, due to our legal and regulatory obligations. Our records will serve as documentation of your use of the Services unless they are demonstrated to be incorrect. Upon your request, your records may be provided to you, although we are not responsible for any record-keeping obligations you may have. You acknowledge and agree that we may use our records as evidence in any legal or regulatory proceedings.

7. Market abuse and prohibited behaviour

- 7.2.4. Act in an abusive or dishonest manner in respect of our Website, Trading Platforms, or other products;
- 7.2.5. Enter into trades which manipulate our products; or
- 7.2.6. Enter into trades aimed at exploiting errors in prices.

If we determine or suspect that you have breached this Clause 7.2, we may prohibit you from trading, reverse any affected trades, close any open positions, block withdrawals, refund the money you have deposited, retain any funds you may have accumulated, or take any other measures we deem reasonably necessary.

8. Negative balance protection

- 8.1. Negative balance protection may be offered at our sole discretion to protect you from adverse movements in your trades. We are not obliged to provide negative balance protection at any time or in any circumstances, and you should not expect that it will always be available. If we choose to offer it, negative balance protection considers your total liability from all open trades within a CFD account, compared to the funds available in that account, rather than assessing each trade individually.
- 8.2. Even when we do offer negative balance protection, it does not apply in the following situations:
 - 8.2.1. When you open a trade that is considered prohibited; or
 - 8.2.2. When a negative balance results from your breach of this Agreement.

9. Dormant accounts

- 9.1. If your account has not recorded any transactions for a period greater than twelve (12) months, it will be considered a dormant account, and we reserve the right to make an adjustment against your account in our favour both at this time and for every period of six (6) months that your account remains dormant.
- 9.2. If your account has been locked or suspended and has not recorded any transactions for a period of twelve (12) months or more, we reserve the right to rescind your account funds.
- 9.3. If your account has been inactive for thirty (30) days with an account balance of one (1) USD/EUR/GBP or less, we reserve the right to rescind your account funds.
- 9.4. If you have an account for a Trading Platform that has been inactive for 6 months or more and has an amount balance of one (1) USD/EUR/GBP or less, we have the right to transfer these funds to your Deriv account.
- 9.5. If your account is closed or blocked, you must contact our Help Centre to recover funds from your account. If your account is dormant, you can still make withdrawals.
- 9.6. Dormant CFD accounts

- 9.6.1. If you have an account for a CFD Trading Platform that is inactive for a period of time determined at our sole discretion, we may impose partial or full scope restrictions on your account for the Trading Platform, or render your account dormant. Any funds in your dormant CFD account will be transferred to your Deriv account.
- 9.6.2. Using automated or algorithmic trading tools does not stop your CFD account from being classified as dormant if no activity is recorded in the account within the specified time period.
- 9.6.3. We have the right to delete your Deriv MT5 demo account after thirty (30) days of inactivity.
- 9.6.4. We have the right to place partial or full scope trading restrictions on your Deriv MT5 real account after sixty (60) days of inactivity. Any funds in your dormant Deriv MT5 account will be transferred to your Deriv account.
- 9.6.5. We have the right to archive your Deriv MT5 real account after two (2) years of inactivity.

10. Third-party relationships

- 10.1. You may be introduced to us by one of our affiliates. You acknowledge that we do not authorise our affiliates to make any contract, agreement, or warranty on our behalf. In particular, affiliates do not have the authority to collect any money from you, to offer any guarantees against losses, to offer investment services, or to offer any advice in our name.

11. Warranties and indemnities

- 11.1. You warrant and represent to be fully and personally responsible for settling every transaction into which you enter through your account with us.
- 11.2. You warrant and represent to us that you alone control access to your account and that no minors or any other third parties are granted access to your account.
- 11.3. You remain fully liable for any and all positions traded on your account, as well as any credit card transactions or other payments made through the Website or Trading Platforms for your account. You agree to indemnify us against any and all costs and losses of any kind whatsoever that we may incur as a direct or indirect result of your failure to perform or settle any such transaction entered into through the Website or Trading Platforms.
- 11.4. You are responsible for compensating us for any costs and losses that we might incur or bear as a result of your failure to comply with any of your obligations set out in this Agreement. This includes indemnifying us against any costs that arise through the enforcement of any of our rights under this Agreement.
- 11.5. We specifically and expressly disclaim any and all warranties or representations, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, including any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement, relating to the Services, Website, and Trading Platforms.
- 11.6. We provide our Services, Website, and Trading Platforms on an “as is” and “as available” basis and give no warranty that they will be free of errors, that any errors will be corrected, or that they are free of any third-party interferences such as hackers or any other harmful components that arise outside of our control.

- 11.7. We make no claims that our Services, Website, and Trading Platforms will be available on an uninterrupted basis or that an error-free service will be provided. Subject to Clause 12.1., we will not be liable for the consequences of any such errors or interruptions.

12. Liability

- 12.1. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or exclude our liability for anything which cannot be limited or excluded by applicable law.
- 12.2. Subject to Clause 12.1, we shall not be liable to you in contract, tort, or otherwise (including liability for negligence) for (a) any loss of business, revenue, profits, or anticipated savings; (b) any wasted expenditure, corruption, or destruction of data; (c) any loss of goodwill or reputation; (d) for any indirect or consequential loss; or (e) the acts or omissions of any third party, in each case arising directly or indirectly in connection with this Agreement.
- 12.3. Subject to Clauses 12.1 and 12.2, we may be liable for your losses only to the extent that these losses are due to our gross negligence, wilful default, and/or fraud, and our aggregate liability to you in respect of all claims arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including as a result of breach of contract, tort, negligence, under statute, or otherwise) will be limited to the aggregate amount of the deposits less withdrawals on your Deriv account on the date that the cause of action accrued.
- 12.4. Subject to Clause 12.1, in the event that we provide information, news, market commentary or research on our Website or in any communications, including newsletters, whilst we take reasonable measures to ensure the accuracy of this information, we shall not be liable for any losses (whether direct or indirect, or whether arising as a result of breach of contract, tort, negligence, under statute, or otherwise) suffered by you arising from any inaccuracy or mistake in the information given or as a result of you taking or not taking any action based on this information. If you want to use this information to help you with your own investment decisions, you do this at your own risk.

- 13.3.3. If you materially breach any term of this Agreement;
- 13.3.4. If you have made a material misrepresentation to us or any representation that you make to us is false or misleading in any material respect at the time it is given;
- 13.3.5. If you fail to provide any information requested by us pursuant to this Agreement;
- 13.3.6. If we reasonably believe that there is a security or regulatory risk in continuing this Agreement with you;
